ACG DELIGHTED TO BE PART OF INDIA STATE VISIT TO CROATIA

At the invitation of the President of Croatia, Kolinda Grabar-Kitarović, the Indian President, Ram Nath Kovind, attended a two-day state visit to Croatia at the end of March.

During his visit, the Indian President noted and welcomed the recent Croatian presidency of the European Union, and - together with President Kolinda Grabar-Kitarović - pointed out the importance of strengthening bilateral relations.

The pharmaceutical industry was among the key industries highlighted for developing economic co-operations, along with tourism, IT, defence, textile processing and energy.

A festive evening was organised in his honour, with Lukaps representatives also in attendance.

Aside from the state talks, a Croatian-Indian Business Forum was held at the Croatian Chamber of Economy. Attended by a mixture of Indian and domestic companies, ACG was delighted to be represented at the event by Snježana Sirovec, Sales and Business Development Manager and Ljudmila Bogadanić, Finance Head.

Commenting on the state visit, and the significance to ACG, Kamlesh Oza, Senior Vice President, Global Sales, said: “ACG is rapidly expanding its footprint globally, but especially across Europe. We are putting significant investment into our Croatian plants and have worked hard to support the local economy.
